

BEFORE MARRIAGE

He: Ah... At last. I can Hardly wait...!

She: Do you want me to leave...?

He: No...! Don't even think about it.

She: Do you love me...?

He: Of course...! Always have and always will.

She: Have you ever cheated on me...?

He: No...! Why are you asking...?

She: Will you kiss me...?

He: Every chance I get.

She: Will you hit me...?

He: Hell No...! Are you crazy...?

She: Can I trust you...?

He: Yes...

She: Darling...

AFTER MARRIAGE

(Read from Bottom back to the Top)

Whoever made this is clever, tacky but clever. Tacky, because anyone can see that a man should never treat his wife like this. More than that – it is not funny. But, there are people out there who might actually think this is acceptable for a husband. I feel sorry for them and I hope they change before they head to divorce court. Marriage should only enhance a relationship, not degrade it. The apostle Paul wrote these words to the Ephesian church...

Ephesians 5 (World English Bible)

[25] Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the assembly, and gave himself up for it; [26] that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, [27] that he might present the assembly to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without defect. [28] Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. [29] For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord also does the assembly; ^[30] because we are members of his body, of his flesh and bones. ^[31] “For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. The two will become one flesh.” ^[32] This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Christ and of the assembly.

Marriage is an expression of love and should remain that way. It is a bond that is forever and the foundation of our society. At its center is love, genuine love, that should just grow over the years. All people should understand this – especially Christians!
